

Next Steps into Plumbing

Course Name	Start Date	End Date	Site
Next Steps Into Plumbing	12/12/2019	05/03/2020	College Main Site

Course Overview

Having completed Yeovil college's first steps into plumbing course, our team will take you a step further. This course will offer you the opportunity to learn how to complete basic maintenance on taps, valves and rainwater systems. After you are able to complete these tasks you will be show how to Understand systems and temporary decommissioning to unable to dismantle and make basic repairs to plumbing systems within the plumbing workshop. (Completion of the Yeovil College First steps into plumbing course is required)

Introduction to this course

Having completed Yeovil college's first steps into plumbing course, our team will take you a step further. This course will offer you the opportunity to learn how to complete basic maintenance on taps, valves and rainwater systems. After you are able to complete these tasks you will be show how to Understand systems and temporary decommissioning to unable to dismantle and make basic repairs to plumbing systems within the plumbing workshop. (Completion of the Yeovil College First steps into plumbing course is required)

Entry Requirements

You must have completed the relevant first steps course to enrol on to the next steps course.

Entry Requirements

You must have completed the relevant first steps course to enrol on to the next steps course.

How will I be assessed?

You will receive a College certificate when you complete the course.